

HAN FENG 韩锋

b. 1972, works and lives in Germany

Introduction

Han Feng, b.1972, currently lives and works in Berlin & Shanghai. His work involves multiple mediums, such as painting, installation. His works are often inspired by daily objects, exploring the abstract structure of the objects themselves on the canvas, or translating the understanding of the structure into the installations, to show the traditional and natural phenomena in continued evolution. His works attempt to express their daily reflective rules via the recording of the process and construct more spaces for different cognitive gathering in the presentation of his works.

In 2010, Han Feng won the first prize of "the 1st John Moores New Painting Prize", Shanghai. In 2011, his works were exhibited in "the 3rd Biennial at the End of the World", Ushuaia, Argentina. In 2012, Han had a solo exhibition in the Centre for Chinese Contemporary Art, Manchester, U.K. In 2013, his important works were shown in the "Aichi Triennale", Japan and Saatchi Gallery, London, U.K. In 2015, his works were in the "CHINA 8" show in Lehmbruck Museum, Duisburg, Germany. His works, in recent years, were in the global art fairs multiple times, for example, the Art Basel in Switzerland, Hong Kong, and Miami, U.S.A, the Frieze Art Fair in London, U.K., etc.
